Case No. CIV-20-944-D

ORDER

Before the Court is the parties' Joint Motion for Extension of Deadlines [Doc. No. 95]. The parties represent that they seek more time to conduct remaining written discovery, remaining depositions, resolve certain discovery disputes and prepare dispositive motions before trial. Upon consideration, the motion is GRANTED. The unexpired scheduling order deadlines are amended as follows:

Event	Prior Deadline	New Deadline
Discovery to be completed:	July 19, 2024	August 19, 2024
All dispositive and Daubert motions to be filed by:	July 19, 2024	August 19, 2024
Trial docket:	August 13, 2024	To be set
Designations of deposition testimony to be used at trial:	July 2, 2024	September 19, 2024
Objections and counter-designations:	July 9, 2024	September 26, 2024
Objections to counter-designations:	July 16, 2024	October 3, 2024
Motions in limine:	July 2, 2024	September 19, 2024
Requested voir dire:	N/A	September 19, 2024
Trial briefs (optional):	July 2, 2024	September 19, 2024
Requested jury instructions:	N/A	September 19, 2024
Any objections or responses to motions in limine, requested voir dire, jury instructions:	N/A	October 3, 2024

Final Pretrial Report, approved by all counsel, and in full compliance with Local Rules (see Appendix IV), together with a proposed order approving the report, to be submitted to the Court:	July 2, 2024	September 19, 2024
---	--------------	--------------------

All other provisions of the original Scheduling Order [Doc. No. 70], as amended by the Court's May 3, 2024 Order [Doc. No. 79], remain in effect.¹

IT IS SO ORDERED this 28th day of June, 2024.

TIMOTHY D. DeGIUSTI
Chief United States District Judge

¹ If dispositive motions are filed, the trial setting will change. The parties may also move to stay unexpired scheduling order deadlines pending the Court's ruling on dispositive motions. Absent such a motion, all deadlines will remain in full force and effect.
